

ASX RELEASE

Triscreen Media Group (TMG) increases investment in MOKO.mobi Limited via strategic placement.

Further placements follow to raise $1.5 million +

Sydney, 12 August 2009 – MOKO.mobi Limited (ASX: MKB) a mobile service that enables people to easily chat and share over their mobile device, today is pleased to announce that it is the process of placing an additional $1.5 million in equity capital, with an allowance for over subscriptions of up to an additional $500,000. The shares under the placement will be issued at $0.07 each. There will be no options granted as part of this placement.

The funds are being raised by way of a private placement to sophisticated investors, with Triscreen Media Group (TMG) agreeing to invest a further $500,000 as part of the placement.

The company has already received expressions of interest in excess of $1 million, and is confident of achieving at least $1.5 million under this placement.

"The investment of additional equity that MOKO.mobi will receive highlights the continued support for the Company's business model as we continue our carrier roll-out program and work to achieve a financial operating break-even", said Ian Rodwell, MOKO.mobi Limited's CEO.
