

MOKO.mobi appointed BNY Mellon as Depositary Bank

Australia, June 30, 2010 — MOKO.mobi Limited has appointed BNY Mellon, a global leader in asset management and securities servicing, as the depositary bank for its Level I depositary receipt (DR) program. MOKO.mobi's DRs will trade on the U.S. Over-the-Counter Market once the facility has been established, facilitating the purchase of MOKO.mobi shares by United States investors.

BNY Mellon acts as depositary for more than 2,100 American and global depositary receipt programs, acting in partnership with leading companies from 67 countries.

BNY Mellon is the corporate brand of The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation (NYSE: BK).

Ian Rodwell, MOKO.mobi's CEO said, "We are very pleased to be announcing the appointment of BNY Mellon as our depositary bank for our DR program. We view ourselves very much as a global organisation, and this appointment is the natural extension of the Company's increasing focus on the United States, which we consider to be a primary market for us".
