

ASX RELEASE

MOKO.mobi signs contract with Orange (France Telecom) in UK.

Sydney, 4 March 2010 – MOKO.mobi Limited (ASX: MKB) today is pleased to announce that it has signed an agreement with Orange, one of the UK's premier mobile networks.

MOKO.mobi will be launched with zero rated data, MMS and premium activity billing and featured on the Orange content portal. MOKO.mobi will manage all the billing and MMS functionality.

Technical and product integration is scheduled to begin immediately, with an anticipated launch date in late April 2010 and revenue is expected to flow in the ensuing two to three months.

Orange is one of the world's largest mobile groups with over 130 million customers throughout 32 countries.

This contract also means MOKO will have a significant presence in the UK mobile content market, which is an important stepping stone into the mainland European market.
