

MOKO.mobi signs contract with DiGi Malaysia

Perth, 16 June 2010 – MOKO.mobi Limited (ASX: MKB) today is pleased to announce that it signed an agreement with DiGi, one of Malaysia's leading mobile operators with over eight million customers.

MOKO.mobi on DiGi is now live in its promotional phase and revenue is expected begin in the first quarter of the new financial year.

The DiGi contract follows the recent deal with Maxis Malaysia, with MOKO.mobi now available to more than half of the total Malaysian mobile market.

Ian Rodwell, MOKO.mobi's CEO said, "We are very pleased to be launching on DiGi, which will build on the solid take-up of users already live in Malaysia. MOKO.mobi is becoming one of the leading mobile chat communities in Malaysia and with DiGi joining in and building on the growth in the Philippines, we hope to see a snowball effect that will continue our drive towards the position as a market leader in South East Asia."
